Last Orders at 7.45pm

All our meals are freshly prepared and subject to availability, so our menu may change at short notice from time to time. Your patience and understanding will be greatly appreciated. Should you be on a mission and like to pre-order your food, our menu is on the web site, a phone call before 10am or even the day before is all that is required.

If you have any food intolerances or dislikes please tell us, and Alison will come and discuss our options and alternatives. It would be appreciated if vegetarians and vegans could give me 24 hours notice, that way I don't fall into the 'freezer trap' and your food is freshly cooked too.
